With reference to the previous Notice dated 27.06.2020 regarding payment of Semester Fees for the Even Semester of 2019-20 by the defaulting students, it has been observed that many students remained defaulters even after the last date for submission of Semester Fees on 17.07.2020. Considering the difficulties which had probably been faced by the continuing defaulting students as of today and the decision taken by Hooghly Engineering and Technology College Society (HETCS), the last date of submission of fees has once again been extended upto 31.07.2020, which is the ultimate final date and the college will not be held responsible for any consequences of the students, if any, who would remain defaulter after 31.07.2020.
